

ELICOS enrolment statistics 2009

Name of ELICOS institution

CRICOS CODE:

Collection period: 1 January to 31 December 2009

NB. Please count new enrolments only who joined classes in the above statistical collection period. Then count the summary of total number of weeks they have booked including any extensions they have made to their bookings. Do not count students who continued from previous collection periods, ie prior to 1 January 2009.

PLEASE TURN THE PAGE FOR THE FINAL QUESTIONS

This year, DEEWR and English Australia would like to add four supplementary questions regarding transnational delivery. An analysis of the responses to these questions will not be included in the final survey report.

Q1 Does your institution deliver English language programs outside of Australia as per the following definition?

“An Australian ELT provider is a provider who is approved by the relevant authority, or accredited by NEAS, to deliver ELT programs in Australia, and is delivering the same ELT programs overseas which are recognised as being Australian ELT programs.”

Please circle one

- Yes.....1 Go to Q2
- No 2 Skip to name details

If you answered “Yes at Q1”

Q2 Are these programs?

Please circle one

- Award1
- Non-award2
- Both.....3

Q3 Is your organisation NEAS accredited?

Please circle one

- Yes1
- No.....2

Q4 Are your programs delivered through a ‘stand-alone’ or ‘partnership’ arrangement (see definitions below)?

Please circle one

- Stand-alone.....1
- Partnership.....2
- Both.....3

Stand-alone arrangement: the course, curriculum, teaching and the provision of learning support and infrastructure is the sole responsibility of the Australian institution.

Partnership arrangement: an arrangement in which the responsibility for the course curriculum, teaching, and learning support and infrastructure is shared with other entities, such as through partnerships with other institutions, sub-contracting of services, or franchising. The Australian provider has responsibility for academic oversight of the arrangement.
